

Roane County Agricultural Happenings

August 2017

Jessica Wilkinson • (865) 376-5558 • jwilki21@utk.edu • Roane County

Private Applicator Certification Courses and Recertification Courses are now being offered!

- Classes are being scheduled for initial certification and recertification for September and October

Master Gardener Happenings

September Lunch – n – Learn will focus on composting. Come learn from a skilled community member, Mrs. Lisa Deutsch, at noon on September 9th, at the Extension Office.

October 14th, Lunch-n-Learn will focus on weed identification, with Mrs. Maureen Leavitt.

Roane County Livestock News

Livestock Judging: Practice will Resume August 18th and continue weekly until contest September 28th.

Chick Chain:

Congratulations to all participants in this year's Chick Chain! The 2017 Overall Champion Were Black Stars exhibited by Nathan Morgan.

Special thank you to all of our buyers, sponsors, and donors, without your support we would be unable to make the best better.

Front Row (l to R) – Chance Walker, Brennan Reed, Mackenzie Utley, Elizabeth Scarborough, Azia Wright, and Wyatt Garrett. Back Row (L to R) Nathan Morgan (overall winner), Will Walker, Kyle McCracken, and Landon Brown.